Deductibility Code

In general, an individual who itemizes deductions may deduct contributions to most charitable organizations up to 50% (60% for cash contributions) of his or her adjusted gross income computed without regard to net operating loss carrybacks. Individuals generally may deduct charitable contributions to other organizations up to 30% of their adjusted gross income (computed without regard to net operating loss carrybacks). These limitations (and organizational status) are indicated as follows:

Code	Type of organization and use of contribution.	Deductibility Limitation
PC	A public charity.	50% (60% for cash contributions)
POF	A private operating foundation.	50% (60% for cash contributions)
PF	A private foundation.	30% (generally)
GROUP	Generally, a central organization holding a group exemption letter, whose subordinate units covered by the group exemption are also eligible to receive.	Depends on e-Service Information Page The Attorney General's Office has established certain email boxes to be used for designated purposes in complying with Florida state court eservice requirements, pursuant to Rule 2.516, Florida Rules of Judicial Administration. These email boxes are not to be used when the assistant attorney general who has appeared in the case has designated another email box to be used to e-serve documents in a particular case. Rather, these email boxes are to be used to e-serve the OAG with papers under limited circumstances, as described below: General Civil Litigation 1.

oag.civil.eserve@myfloridalegal.com This e-serve box is to be used in the following circumstances: To provide notice of a constitutional challenge to a statute, charter, ordinance or franchise, pursuant to Section 86.091, Fla. Stat. (2012); Rule 1.071, Florida Rules of Civil Procedure; Rule 5.1(a)(2), Federal Rules of Civil Procedure; and Title 28 U.S.C. § 2403. In a civil action where the OAG has been named as a party, appropriate service of initial process has been made, but there has been no appearance on behalf of the OAG. By all branches of Florida state government to transmit potential or new cases to the OAG. 2. oag.foreclose.eserve@myfloridalegal.com This e-serve box is to be used if the State of Florida is named as a Defendant in a foreclosure action in the following circumstances: This email box is only to be used after appropriate service of process against the state has been perfected by both serving the state attorney or assistant state attorney for the judicial circuit in which the action is brought and by sending two copies of the process by registered or certified mail to the Attorney General. §48.121, Fla. Stat. (2012). To serve any papers and pleadings filed in a foreclosure action, after service of initial process, where the State of Florida is named as a party. 3.

oag.cse2.eserve@myfloridalegal.com This e-serve box is only to be used for service of any pleadings filed in Department of Revenue child support cases in the Second Judicial Circuit which includes the following counties: Franklin, Gadsden, Jefferson, Leon, Liberty, Wakulla. 4. oag.cse6.eserve@myfloridalegal.com This e-serve box is only to be used for service of any pleadings filed in Department of Revenue child support cases in the Sixth Judicial Circuit which includes the following counties: Pasco, Pinellas. 5.

oag.cse12.eserve@myfloridalegal.com This e-serve box is only to be used for service of any pleadings filed in Department of Revenue child support cases in the Twelfth Judicial Circuit which includes the following counties: Desoto, Sarasota. 6.

Deductibility Code

In general, an individual who itemizes deductions may deduct contributions to most charitable organizations up to 30% (60% for cash contributions) of his or her adjusted gross income computed without regard to net operating loss carrybacks. Individuals generally may deduct charitable contributions to other organizations up to 30% of their adjusted gross income (computed without regard to net operating loss carrybacks). These limitations (and organizational status) are indicated as follows:

Code	Type of organization and use of contribution.	Deductibility Limitation
PC	A public charity.	50% (30% for cash contributions).
POF	A private operating foundation.	50% (30% for cash contributions).
PF	A private foundation.	30% (generally).
GROUP	Generally, a central organization holding a group exemption letter, whose subordinate units covered by the group exemption are also eligible to receive.	Depends on
